Task progress

The progress can be measured using different fields:

- Time tracking
- Custom number
- Status

The progress slider found on the Gantt task can be mapped to one of the fields listed above and the value of changed directly using the Gantt interface.

To map a different field to the progress slider go to Global configuration - Task configuration